TRINITY COUNTY

Shanna S. White

County Clerk/Recorder/Assessor

Dear Candidate,

This Candidate's Information Guide was prepared by the Trinity County Elections staff to assist you, the Candidate, through the nomination and elections process.

The Trinity County Elections Office is dedicated to administering fair and accurate elections and to help all qualified candidates have their names placed on the ballot.

Staff has made every attempt to be as informative as possible, but law prohibits employees from answering questions of legal nature. Candidates and others using this guide must bear full responsibility to make their own determinations. To that end, it is strongly recommended that candidates obtain their own legal counsel.

For questions or to schedule an appointment to file nomination documents contact the Elections office at elections@trinitycounty.org or call 530-623-1220.

Best of luck campaigning!

Sincerely,

Shanna S. White

CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE FORMS

The Political Reform Act of 1974 requires all candidates for state and local elective offices, all state and local elected officeholders, proponents of state and local ballot measures who control a ballot measure committee, and committees supporting or opposing state and local candidates, and all measure and petition circulation committees, to file campaign disclosure statements disclosing contributions received and expenditures made.

It is the responsibility of the candidate and/or committee to be aware of and to file the required campaign disclosure statements in a correct and timely manner. If a candidate and/or committee with campaign disclosure obligations and requirements fail to file within the specified deadlines, the non-receipt of a reminder notice may not be utilized (or rationalized) as the reason for late or non-filing.

Before accepting any contributions or making expenditures toward a campaign, it is vital that you obtain the correct forms required by law for reporting campaign contributions and expenditures. Failure to file could lead to fines and/or civil or criminal penalties.

It is necessary to review the "Campaign Disclosure Manual" pertaining to the type of office you are seeking. These manuals will have important information regarding who is required to file, when you are required to file, where to file and which forms to use. These manuals also cover what information is required to be disclosed and how to report that disclosure on the forms. These manuals are available from the Fair Political Practices Commission.

FPPC Form 501 - Candidate Intention Statement

A candidate for state or local office must file this form for each election, including reelection to the same office.

FPPC form 700 - Statement of Economic Interests

A candidate running for local elective offices that are designated in the conflict-of-interest code.

FPPC Form 460 – Recipient Committee Campaign Statement

A candidate or officeholder who has a controlled committee and plans on raising or spending $2,000 or more during a calendar year. The form 460 is also required if $2,000 or more will be raised or spent during the calendar year at the behest of the officeholder or candidate.

FPPC Form 470 - Officeholder and Candidate Campaign Statement - Short form and Form 470 Supplement

A candidate or officeholder who does not have a controlled committee and does not anticipate spending or receiving contributions totaling $2,000 or more during the calendar year.

Campaign disclosure forms and information manuals are available from the Fair Political Practices Commission on their website www.fppc.ca.gov. For any questions regarding FPPC forms email advice@fppc.ca.gov or call 1-866-ASK-FPPC (1-866-275-3772).

NOTE: Filing by the deadline as prescribed by law is the responsibility of the candidate or committee.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

Election Code §20400

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters. The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign Practices is to give voters guidelines in determining fair play and to encourage candidates to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

CAMPAIGN LITERATURE

Government Code §82041.5, §84305, §89001

Candidates should not distribute or mail campaign literature telling the voter where his/her polling place is located. It is confusing and a disservice to the voter if polling place changes occur in the last few weeks prior to an election.

Mass mailing means over two hundred (200) substantially similar pieces of mail, but does not include a form letter or other mail which is sent in response to an unsolicited request, letter or other inquiry.

A post office box may be stated in lieu of a street address if the organizations address is a matter of public record with the Secretary of State.

- (b) If the sender of the mass mailing is a single candidate or committee, the name, street address and city of the candidate or committee need only be shown on the outside of each piece of mail.
- (c) If the sender of a mass mailing is a controlled committee, the name of the person controlling the committee shall be included in addition to the information required.

No newsletter or other mass mailing shall be sent at public expense.

Note: If you are planning any type of mass mailing, please contact the post office in advance for specific postal regulations.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS BY CANDIDATES

How soon will a list of qualified candidates be available after the close of the nomination period?

The nomination period ends on the 88th day prior to the election or the 83rd day prior to the election if there is an extension to the nomination filing period. A list of candidates will be prepared within the following days, and should be available for distribution within approximately one week.

If I submit a voluntary candidate statement of qualifications and I change my mind, may I withdraw the statement and receive a refund?

The candidate statement may be withdrawn and refunded, but not changed, during the period for filing nomination papers and until 5:00 p.m. on the next business day after the close of the nomination period. After this period your statement cannot be withdrawn nor a refund given.

May my spouse, relative, friend or campaign manager pick up nomination papers for me? All forms must be picked up by the candidate in person or by a candidate's representative with specific written authorization, signed by the candidate. However, because there is so much information to be given, it is strongly recommended that the candidate appear in person.

Plan to spend up to 60 minutes in the Election's office filling out the candidate papers.

If I am unable to complete and file my campaign disclosure statement by the filing deadline, may I obtain an extension and will I be fined?

NO and POSSIBLY. There is NO provision in the Political Reform Act that permits any filing officer to grant an extension of a filing deadline. You could POSSIBLY be fined as statements that are filed late are subject to a fine of $10 per day until the statement is filed.

Can I obtain election night results on the Internet?

YES. You may obtain information regarding polling places and election results by visiting our website which is at www.trinitycounty.org/Elections.

Why is there so much paperwork involved in becoming a candidate?

Election laws specify the documents required, as well as form, format, filing dates, etc. The filing requirements are not discretionary.

Do I need to make an appointment to file my Candidate paperwork?

YES, this will allow you to have the uninterrupted attention of the Election's office staff.
