Final Report

DATE: 8/27/13

The Grand Jury Judicial Committee has requested a written response to their final report on the JUR-2012-2013-002 CDCR/CAL FIRE Trinity River Conservation Camp: Pride and a plan go a long way. The response of the Board is as follows:

Finding #1: The Trinity River Conservation Camp is a well-organized institution that addresses many of the needs of Trinity County as well as the State of California.

Response: Agree

Recommendation #1: Continue the programs. We believe they are making great strides that improve the wellbeing of our community as well as providing a much needed service to the State of California.

Response: Has been implemented and will continue to be implemented. The Trinity River Conservation Camp provides many services for Trinity County and its citizens along with the State. It serves as a very functioning model of what can be done. The Trinity County Board of Supervisors is in complete support of the Camp.
