Promise to Pay Information Sheet

Promise to pay must be completed in full, signed, dated, and returned with your down payment. Incomplete payment plans or payment plans returned without the down payment may be returned and assessed additional fines.

We do not mail monthly statements. You may set up an automatic payment with your credit or debit card. Please contact us if you would like further information on this program.

If you would like a receipt of your payment, you must include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your payment.

There is a $35.00 installment account fee that is added to your fine amount for the administrative costs for a payment plan.

The Promise to Pay form must be returned within 10 days.

You agree to notify us of any changes in address or phone number. Failure to do so may result in a Violation of your Probation.

If you receive an inability to pay finding from the Judge, you must submit a completed financial declaration and produce documents to prove your financial status. Please see the Probation Department for further information.

Delinquent Accounts are subject to the following:

*A "Failure To Pay" hold may be placed upon your driver's license, which will not be release until the total amount due is paid in full.

*Account will be sent to the Franchise Tax Board's Court Ordered Debt Program.

*Account will be sent to Franchise Tax Board's Tax Intercept Program.

*A Warrant can be issued for failing to make your monthly payments if you are on probation.
